. Rob Smith (American football) Robert "Rob" Smith (born May 3, 1955 in Lincoln County, New Mexico) is a former American football linebacker in the National Football League for the San Francisco 49ers and the Dallas Cowboys. He played college football at the University of New Mexico. In his 11-year NFL career, Smith played in 87 regular season games, intercepting seven passes, defying the reincarnation of the "Bump-and-Run" defense and proving to be a dependable special teams contributor. In his rookie year, the 49ers reached the Super Bowl and lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers. Smith and the defense, however, were a big reason why the 49ers won the NFC West by allowing the fewest points (224) and the fewest yards (1,801) and setting a franchise record with 10 interceptions. Smith started at strong safety in Super Bowl XXIX and helped his team to a 34-31 victory over the New York Giants. In 1989, Smith signed a 5-year, $6.75 Million contract and was a starting strong safety for the Cowboys, but was released at the end of the 1992 season in a salary cap cut. In 1993, Smith signed a 1-year, $875,000 deal with the Cowboys and played in 9 regular season games and two post season games with them.
