(R)-(+)-2,4-Pentanediamine (PDA) and (S)-(+)-2,4-pentanediamine (SPDA) were stereoselectively prepared through the addition of isopropenylmagnesium bromide to aldehyde derivatives followed by reduction of the intermediate imine with NaBH<sub>4</sub>. The reduction product, (S)-N-benzyl-N-(2,4-pentanediamine), can be used as a chiral building block to synthesize enantiomerically pure (S)-2,4-pentanediamine derivatives. LONDON (Reuters) - European football's governing body UEFA is keen to avoid causing financial disruption to clubs like Liverpool FC and Tottenham Hotspur by having to intervene to resolve financial disputes, its chief executive has said. FILE PHOTO - Manager Jurgen Klopp (C) applauds Liverpool fans at the end of the English Premier League football match between Liverpool and Watford at Anfield, in Liverpool, north west England, Britain, April 6, 2019. REUTERS/Phil Noble UEFA has already taken action in the past over Liverpool's dealings with German bank Bayern Munich and Serbia's Red Star Belgrade. The latest financial dispute has seen Liverpool and Italian club Napoli part ways after the Reds received a multi-million pound advance from the Serie A side and the latter claimed it was entitled to 50 percent of the money.
